THE HIGHWAY

(From Thursday's Advertiser.)

The time taken by voters to mark their ballots Tuesday varied according to the intelligence of the man. In one of the precincts one Hawaiian occupied fifteen minutes and another forty-five. In another a white man, a straight ticket individual, supposedly, was fif toen minutes in the booth. There was little or no interference with them, no matter how long they stayed in. Several of the watchers around different polling places reported the indication for a straight ticket was all right but A. V. Gear said the Seventh of the Fourth was cutting badly. "To tell the truth no one knows how it is go We are sure that in many stances the men who say they have voted straight took the other side to

SLASHING CANDIDATES.

In the Ninth of the Fourth, there was a good deal of supposed cutting during the day and some disorder. The netive police officer on duty in the morning drove off a Hawaiian who was soliciting votes or at least directing the people in line bow to mark their tickets. The police officer drove the man away but a few minutes later Brown came on the scene with two others and murched along the line from voter to voter telling them how to vote and who to vote for but the policeman remained mute. That was the precinct where the slight disorder occurred. Harry Murray was out with Vida making the rounds of the polling booths in an auto and the Sheriff would occasionally appear at the different booths anxiously inquiring as to the situation. Before the count was finished Murray remarked that there was still hope and when the end came he bobbed up serenely with the remark "If we are beaten we will be true sports."

Willie Jarrett came down King street while the returns were coming in and was hauled around by friends who wished to show their good feeling. His fine majority was a surprise to those who had not known him well. It had been whispered that Vida was even stronger than Brown and yet the count showed him weaker everywhere. Inukea took his election quietly as a man who felt that there was still a chance to lose but in the event of a recount he had the feeling that his majority would be greater than at first blush, ere was very little of the crooked work found out. Down Kakanko way Charlie Rose found a man putting in a sample ballot in the box and carrying away an official one to be used as a model for the ignorant voter in sep-precinct controlled by Sam Johnson. Think of that. Rose is keeping the ballot as a souvenir and, perhaps, as evidence. Up in the Eleventh of the Fifth quiet reigned all day. Fifteen of the County, six of the Representa-tive, eight of the Senatorial and three ballots for Delegate were thrown out There were fifteen straight Republican ballots cast and quite a number of those bearing the names of Smith and Mc-Carthy on them. This shows that the Civic Federation had strength up there. MOORE GOES DOWN.

The defeat of Moore was something of a surprise. He made a good fight and it was thought he would be a sure winner. He attributes his failure sole-ly to the efforts of Charlie Achi, "Achi the new leader in the Fifth," said, "and you can make up your mind to a change." From another source came the expression that Johnson would go out and a Hawaiian be put in his place. McCandless' fall was not altogether a surprise to the voters. One RECOUNT TALK. Over in the County Cherk's office Dave Hansle gave it out in the worming that there would be a recount and Brown would be choiced on the ground that the invalidating of the ballot for Supervisor did not effect that for Sher iff. These same friends say they believe the defeat of the Sheriff is due to the underhand work of Kupihea and Captain Bob, Parker. This seems incredible when it is cosidered that in the out precinct meet ings, Kupihen was an active "hipship Out at Palama, Big Jim hurraher. insisted in drowning the sound of music with his demand for cheers which materialized and now his enemies shut out every consideration and blame him, partly, for the fall of his chief. Col. In the first campaign, and about the time that Prince David Kawananakoa and John Wise went to the Kansas City Democratic National convention to represent Hawaii, Col. McCarthy is said to have put out about $6000. He was about the only real Democrat in active campaigning at that time and was the greatest contributor to the fun.

Many ballots bore crosses opposite oth names of the candidates for Sheriff. Some voters were so anxious to see all their friends go in that they voted almost the entire list of supervisors and representatives on their
